

Academy Update from the U.S. Soccer Development Academy Staff – Wednesday, Nov. 30, 2011

ACADEMY SELECT GAME TIMES

The 78 Development Academy players that were named to Academy Select Teams will be divided into four Select Teams and compete in two games during the 2011 Winter Showcase. The games will be held on Dec. 3 at the Premier Sports Complex in Sarasota, Fla. Divided by age group, the players born in 1996 will be split into two teams and face off at 5 p.m. ET, while the two teams made up of players born in 1995 will compete at 7 p.m. ET.

U.S. U-17 MNT ON FOX SOCCER

FOX Soccer will broadcast all three U.S. Under-17 Men's National Team matches during the 2011 Nike International Friendlies in conjunction with the Development Academy Winter Showcase. Head coach Wilmer Cabrera's squad is made up entirely of players born in 1996, with 16 of them hailing from Development Academy clubs. New York Red Bulls provides the most players from one club, with five, while Concorde Fire sends two. The U.S. U-17 MNT will play each of its games at 5 p.m. ET, facing off against France on Nov. 30, Turkey on Dec. 2 and Brazil on Dec. 4. For a complete list of games and standings, click here.
