

Wednesday January 8, 2010

CSA US Development Academy continue Home Games

Birmingham United and Atlanta Fire United travel to Charlotte

The CSA US Soccer Development Academy teams continue their home season this coming Saturday and Sunday playing against Birmingham United and Atlanta Fire United respectively. The games are at Elon Park on Saturday and at Davie Park on Sunday. Game times and locations are as follows:

1pm U16 CSA vs. Birmingham United (Saturday)
2:30pm U18 CSA vs. Birmingham United (Saturday)

10am U16 CSA vs. Atlanta Fire United (Sunday)
11:45am U18 CSA vs. Atlanta Fire United (Sunday)

There will also be a pre-academy friendly U14 game at 2:30pm at Elon on Saturday. Admission is free to the public.

“ We are looking forward to hosting Birmingham United and the Atlanta Fire United clubs over the weekend”, said Richard Butler, CSA’s Director of the US Development Academy program. “We had a an eight day break over the holiday period so that the boys could rest and rejuvenate going into the long season ahead. We have trained six times since December 30th so the guys are sharp and ready to go as we haven’t had a game since December 20th”.